CERTIFICATE OF ADVANCED GRADUATE STUDIES (CAGS)

The Certificate of Advanced Graduate Studies (CAGS) provides graduate-level psychology and counseling courses to individuals seeking to re-specialize in clinical psychology or to meet credentialing requirements.

The material in this packet is to be used by those applying to the Certificate of Advanced Graduate Study program.

For matriculation into the CAGS program, applicants must have completed a master's degree in psychology, social work, creative arts therapy, counseling, school psychology, marriage/family therapy or pastoral counseling from an accredited institution with a B average or better. Master's degrees in other specialty areas will be considered on a case-by-case basis. As an applicant to Philadelphia College of Osteopathic Medicine, you are responsible for ensuring that all admissions materials are completed accurately and submitted on time.

Applicants are responsible for ascertaining with the Office of Admissions (800-999-6998 or 215-871-6700) that all application materials have been received by PCOM.

Admissions materials consist of:

- Admissions Application including autobiographical statement
- Official transcripts from all college and universities attended
- $50 application fee

Notice: All documents received by the College in connection with applications for admission become the property of PCOM. Under no circumstance will they be returned to the applicant or forwarded to any agency or other college or university. Application fees are non-refundable. Please submit complete application forms.
