Policy of Fairness and Equal Opportunity

Philadelphia College of Osteopathic Medicine policy prohibits discrimination on the basis of age, race, color, gender, national or ethnic origin, ancestry, sexual orientation, religion, creed, disability or marital status. This policy applies in recruitment and admission of students, employment of faculty and staff, and scholarship and loan programs. This policy is also followed in the operation of all other programs, activities and services of the College.

PCOM subscribes to the principles and adheres to the requirements of the state and federal law pertaining to civil rights and equal opportunity, in accordance with the requirements of Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended; Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972; Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, as amended; and the Age Discrimination Act of 1975, as amended.

Evidence of practices inconsistent with this policy should be reported to the Director of Human Resources, who is the designated coordinator of PCOM's nondiscrimination program. Inquiries regarding compliance with the sex discrimination provisions of Title IX may also be directed to the Assistant Secretary for Civil Rights, Department of Education, Washington, DC.

ALL APPLICANTS PLEASE READ AND SIGN

I hereby authorize GA-PCOM and its representatives to consult with employers/managers/supervisors and academic institutions with which I have been associated who may have information bearing on my professional performance. I hereby release from any liability any and all individuals and organizations listed above who provide information to GA-PCOM in good faith concerning my professional performance, educational credentials, ethics, character and other qualifications and I hereby consent to the release of such information.

All credentials in support of this application become property of GA-PCOM and cannot be returned. I certify that all statements in this application are complete and true. False and/or omitted relevant information on this or any other application will result in immediate rejection of the applicant from the college if the applicant has been admitted.
