THE PCOM PARENT FUND
PHILADELPHIA COLLEGE OF
OSTEOPATHIC MEDICINE

WHAT IS THE PCOM PARENT FUND?

Deborah Chiumento, PsyD '09 with her parents Louis and Deborah Chiumento.

The PCOM Parent Fund provides Kenneth Veit, DO '76, Provost, Vice President for Academic Affairs and Dean, the flexibility to earmark funds to meet new challenges as they arise throughout the academic year.

PCOM remains competitive by providing superior education and clinical training thanks in part to the support of The PCOM Parent Fund. The Fund helps PCOM sustain the quality of education that prepares your daughter or son to become first-rate physicians, researchers, clinicians, health care providers and leaders.

ON THE COVER: Anthony P. Ricketti, MD, Barbara D. Ricketti, RN and Peter A. Ricketti (DO '12).

THE PCOM PARENT FUND ENABLES THE COLLEGE TO ENHANCE ACADEMIC PROGRAMS AND SERVICES

SIMULATION SUITES AND CLINICAL SKILLS LABS

PCOM's clinical learning and assessment labs, and simulator suites give students the opportunity to develop crucial communication skills and develop clinical expertise through the Standardized Patient Program and cutting edge technology.

LIBRARY RESOURCES

The O.J. Snyder Memorial Library and the GA-PCOM Library provide students with vast and up-to-date reference resources:

- Physical diagnoses streaming videos complete with live body sounds
- Access Surgery and Access Medicine, electronic textbooks that guide students through procedures and provide the most accurate medical information
- Psychiatryonline – the leading diagnostic and statistical manual of mental disorders.

EXTENSIVE STUDENT SERVICES

Writing Support Program

One-on-one instruction with writing consultants to help students with any stage of the writing process for term papers, research papers and dissertations.

CARES

PCOM Center for Academic Resources and Educational Services (CARES) offers students consultations consisting of a blend of good general study skills strategies with an individualized support plan.

Career Planning Support Service

The Student Affairs Office provides guidance for students in all degree programs. Support services include helping students choose a specialty, complete residency applications, prepare for interviews, write a resume and conduct their job search.
