My Role in DEI at PCOM and Beyond

Everyone has a role in diversity, equity and inclusion at PCOM. This workshop will explore foundational language, your identities and experiences, and goal setting for incorporating DEI into your community at PCOM.

Level: Fundamental

Facilitators: Mitchel Kabia-Williams and Dr. Christy Finley

Tuesday, September 26, 12:00-1:00pm

You're not a Fraud, You're Overcoming Imposter Syndrome

Many people who have acquired certain skills, talents and accomplishments have a hard time accepting the fact that they have earned their success. This workshop will allow space for participants to see the value they bring and help them identify ways to better navigate imposter syndrome.

Level: Fundamental

Facilitators: Dr. Jennifer Mitchell and Alicia Hahn

Friday, October 6, 12:00-1:00 pm

PCOM Safe Space

PCOM faculty, staff and students are trained to become allies of lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, questioning, intersex and asexual/allied (LGBTQIA) persons. Participants are given the tools and resources to create safe environments for PCOM's LGBTQIA community members and visitors to the College. Learn more about Safe Space here.
